CHAS. C. HEATH

A VETERAN NEGRO.—We were much interested in the history of the adventures of a negro man, who has lately returned from the Mexican war, as related to us by that accomplished officer, Lieut. Rains, of the engineer corps. Sandy has had the singular fortune, for a negro, to have been at his own earnest solicitation, in nearly all the battles in Mexico. He was at Corpus Christi during the encampment of our army at that place, and marched with the column to the Rio Grande. In some of his peregrinations around Fort Brown, he was captured by the Mexicans, after a stout resistance, and thus became the first prisoner in the war with Mexico. The Mexicans took Sandy to Matamoras, and treated him with "the most distinguished consideration," and finally offered him a lieutenancy in the Mexican army, which he indignantly declined, and escaping in a skiff, joined his master, Major Rains, and was present at the bombardment of Fort Brown. By solicitation, Sandy was allowed to join the army at Vera Cruz, and was present throughout the siege. He was, again, at the battle of Cerro Gordo, and joining his master's brother, Lieut. Rains, at Puebla, he marched with the army into the valley of Mexico, and was present in every battle being always near to render assistance to his master in case he should require it. No one in the whole army appeared to enjoy the successes of our arms with more enthusiasm, and no one maintained a more uniformly gallant devotion to his duty and charge than the negro Sandy. Having been with the army since his childhood, he well deserves the title of the "veteran negro."—N. O. Delta.

THE DAILY NEWS.

Newport:

THURSDAY MAY 25, 1848.

BY O. F. JACKSON, 97, THAMES-ST.

ADVERTISERS will please bear in mind that the circulation of the DAILY NEWS is greater than that of any other paper published in Newport, or the combined circulation of any two papers issued from one office. As one proof of this fact, the list of Letters remaining in the Post Office are advertised in THIS PAPER, as BY LAW REQUIRED.

ARRIVAL OF THE HERMAN. — This steamer arrived at New York on Monday afternoon, after a passage of sixteen days from Southampton. She brought papers one day later than those by the Calcutta, but they contain no news. The Paris correspondent of the London Times gives a full and interesting history of the opening of the National Assembly, from which we make the following extract:

"We the most theatrical people in the world to choose a position for an exhibition of the kind that met the eye of the observer on reaching the bridge, the portico, and the immense flight of steps—the most extensive, perhaps, in Europe, leading to the palace of the National Assembly, would be that selected. Imagine the whole of the quays at each side of the bridge, and on each side the river crammed with people and National Guards mixed irregularly. Within the railing the National Guards and staff officers filled the space that lies between it and the first steps. Above were the members of the Provisional Government, and beside them, and filling the whole of the flight of steps beneath them, the 600 or 700 members of the Assembly. Every man of them could be distinctly seen by every spectator from the Pont Royal on the one side, and the Pont des Invalides on the other, and from the Church of the Madeleine in front, if human vision could reach the distance.

"The scene that presented itself defies description. The colors of the National Guard had been brought within the railing by the time that I arrived. Something was wanting, but it was soon forthcoming. The colors of the army were called for in voices of thunder. They were brought forward, and then recommenced the proclamation of the Republic, the acceptance of it, and the fraternization of the 20th of April; but it would seem that the enthusiasm of yesterday surprised that observant on the day just mentioned, and it was stimulated by the thunder of the cannon of the Invalides.

"I have no time for further description. The Republic was proclaimed and accepted unanimously by the National Assembly, in the presence of 200,000 of the people in Paris. 'Vive to those, or to any class who shall occasion doubts of the sincerity of that acceptance.' I hear at every side to-day, 'To retract is impossible. The slightest appearance of reaction will raise Paris in flames and deluge its streets with blood.' From all that I have seen and heard, this is the general impression produced by the event of yesterday."

The Editor of the Providence Transcript finds it very hard work to swallow what we said in regard to our Fire Companies a few days since, but nevertheless, we stick to it that of all the companies we saw in the city on the day of Maj. Vinton's funeral, none will compare with either of the uniformed companies in this town, neither as regards the neatness of their uniform, or the correctness of their discipline. We speak of what we saw. The Editor of the Transcript has not seen our Fire Companies since they procured their new uniforms; and during this spring they have had frequent drill meetings—some say five nights out of seven, every week, for the last three months, have been devoted to this purpose, for the truth of this we will not vouch, but we know that they have been often, and all this has not been without making some progress in disciplinary matters.

Perhaps the boys of the "old Cateract" are the only ones of our Engines but we will say that it would be the hardest washing they ever had. We could speak more fully, but I will not do so, as it is not my point of view.

Mr. Wagoner, in the course of a day or two, has been to supply the steamer Perry and vessels with fresh water, taken from the fountain at the head of Green Street, and delivered at the end of the wharf. The fountain is twenty feet deep, and there is, at present, about eleven feet of water in it. An iron pipe, two inches in diameter, leads from the fountain to the end of the wharf.

QUEEN YET. The steamer Perry, Capt. Wagoner, made the trip from Providence to Newport on Saturday, a distance of thirty miles, in one hour and fifteen minutes.

The report of the Patent Office, recently made, presents some interesting statistics relative to the wealth of the Union. The population of the United States is set down at 20,746,000, and the aggregate of personal and real property is estimated at $3,294,360,000. New York is the richest State, her property being $1,112,000,000; Pennsylvania next, $850,000,000; then Ohio, $740,000,000; then Virginia, $380,000,000. The remainder of the States rank as follows:

Indiana $381,000,000, Tennessee $380,000,000, Kentucky $342,000,000, Massachusetts $340,000,000, Georgia $320,000,000, North Carolina $306,000,000, Illinois $294,000,000, Alabama $276,000,000, Mississippi $256,000,000, South Carolina $242,000,000, Missouri $240,000,000, Maine $240,000,000, Maryland $193,000,000, Louisiana $188,000,000, New Jersey $166,000,000, Michigan $148,000,000, Connecticut $132,000,000, Vermont $120,000,000, New Hampshire $120,000,000, Arkansas $80,000,000, Texas $56,000,000, Iowa $52,000,000, Rhode Island $52,000,000, Wisconsin $36,000,000, Delaware $32,000,000, Florida $30,000,000, District of Columbia $18,000,000, Oregon $8,000,000.

The Providence Journal says that the valuation of that city by assessment is $27,000,000, and it thinks that the valuation of the State is estimated too low.

GEN. SCOTT. — A delegation of General Scott's friends in New York, visited him at his residence in Elizabethtown on Monday, and prevailed upon him to visit New York city, to which he consented, and to-day was fixed upon for this visit. He is to land at the Battery at two o'clock this afternoon, at which time the military of the city will parade.

THIRTY LIVES LOST. — Letters from Peterhead, dated April 28, announce the recovery of the wreck of the Humbal, a ship of 500 tons burden, from Quebec, found ashore near Dronnsford, on the coast of Norway. The vessel encountered the dreadful storm on the 21st of February last, while on her passage to Hull, in the course of which a frightful sea struck the ship, sweeping everything off her decks—masts, bulwarks, and boats; and every soul (except one man) belonging to her overboard, all of whom met with a watery grave. The solitary seaman left on board endured the greatest privations. After 14 days' suffering, the vessel was carried by the current of the ocean to the spot above mentioned, where he remained six or seven days before the wreck was discovered, that portion of Norway being uninhabited, and some miles out of the way of trading vessels. The poor fellow was insensible, and apparently in a dying state, and it was with the utmost difficulty that he was restored to life. Subsequently, the wreck was got off, and being found water-tight, was taken in tow and conveyed to Peterhead, where she arrived on the 28th.

OUR OPINION, EXACTLY. — The New York Sunday Dispatch says: It would only be doing the fair thing if all our readers who visit Newport this season should become regular patrons of the News.

THE U. S. MINT AT PHILADELPHIA, has just completed the gold medal for Gen. Taylor, ordered by the vote of Congress. It is neat chaste and appropriate, and cost about seven hundred dollars. It has already been forwarded to the Department.

THE HISTORY OF WAR. — The New Jersey Freeman states: We saw a young man the other day, one of a company of one hundred and ten that went to Mexico at the commencement of the war, who formed the twentieth part of the whole number that returned alive. All the rest mouldered in Mexican soil.

MEXICAN IDOL. — There is now in the Custom house of this city, just arrived from Vera Cruz, a curious Mexican idol, or perhaps the effigy of one of the priestesses who formerly served in the Temple of the Sun, the flaming God of the ancient Aztec worship. It represents a woman in rough stone and arrayed in singular habiliments. It is about 4 1/2 feet high. We hear that it is a present to the city, from a distinguished U. S. naval officer, now serving on the coast of Mexico. — New Orleans Times.

YUCATAN. — The Indians, it is said, having violated the treaty with the Spaniards, resumed hostilities, and captured the towns of Turbul and Chelchun.

VARIETIES OF THE SENTIMENTAL. — Everybody has something sentimental to say about moonlight—but differently constituted minds vary essentially in their style of describing a moonlight scene. Byron says he wonders why the moon people call the moon chaste, and proceeds to show that she has no claim to the title of Diana; Shakspeare gives a very pretty bit of blank verse on the subject—"How sweet the moonlight sleeps upon you bank;" and the editor of the Salem Observer no less poetically remarks that "the creamy rays of the big cheese of the heavens have been shed down upon us gloriously this week." One would think the editor had dipped his pen in the milky way.

THE farewell of Gen. Scott, when he left Mexico, is described as having been exceedingly impressive and affecting. The American Star says:—

"The most affecting scene of all was when he left his house. The rifle guard was drawn up to receive him, and as he passed, they presented arms to their beloved commander for the last time; they shed tears like children, and so affected was the old hero, that he could scarcely get into the carriage."

ORPHANS. — There are in New York, several Orphan Asylums, supported by private benevolence; but in addition to these the city maintains, educates and provides for over one thousand children who are without any other protectors. Some were abandoned at their birth, others have been deserted by dissolute parents. What an indication of vice and misery does this one fact exhibit!

THE Church in Hartford, Conn., over which the Rev. Dr. Hawes is settled has never dismissed a minister during the 212 years it was founded.

This remark can be made of very few churches in New England.

A traveler on one of the Western steamboats recently, was landed near his home, on the shore, and as the boat was about to leave again, he bawled out:

"Hallo, Captain! there is something missing here!"

"What is it?" asked the Captain. "Hang me, if I can recollect now," said the traveler; "let me see—here's all my trunks, boxes, two dogs, gun, and—oh thunder! its my wife and little girl, that are asleep in the cabin! I knew there was something!"

CHANGES AND REVERSES. — The old Dutch church was turned into a riding school during the revolutionary war, and is now the Post Office. Thousands walk daily over vaults (in which our Dutch ancestors repose) in search of news from the living. The little church at the corner of Frankfort and William streets, in which so many Hessian officers were buried during the war, in full regimentals, is now used as an auction room, and the auctioneer knocks down property from that pulpit where for so many years peace and good will were preached. This is a changeable, business, progressive, money-making age.—N. Y. Star.

It may be said generally, of husbands, as the woman said of her's who had abused her, to an old maid who reproached her for being such a fool as to marry him—"to be sure he is not so good as he should be, but he's a powerful sight better than none."

AN OLD SERVANT. — The Boston Bee says that there is now living in a town about thirty miles from that city, a good, old, faithful white servant—who has numbered her ninety-fifth summer—and has lived in one family ever since she was ten years of age!

It is said that men who do not advertise are too stingy to sell fair bargains to their customers. There is little doubt that the most extensive advertisers are the fairest dealers.

Whenever we drink too deep in pleasure, we find a sediment at the bottom, which pollutes and embitters what we relish at first.

U. S. storeship Supply, of the Dead Sea expedition, anchored under Mount Carmel, Palestine, March 30.

The model artists continue to exhibit their "practical forms" at Palma's opera house, New York, notwithstanding the pronouncements of the mayor.

A beautiful monument of Vermont marble is to be erected to Elias Wright.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT.—Later than the last.—We clip the following from the Boston Post:

"A highly respectable house in this city has received letters from a reliable source," stating that either peace or war may confidently be expected, unless some else transpires; as the writer himself saw an officer of the army, when asked his opinion as to the result, apply his thumb to his nose in a manner that admitted of but one construction!

Quite a change has taken place in the style of ladies' dresses, among the "upper-ten" in the larger cities. It is said they have entirely abandoned all artificial aids to corporeal rotundity, and now appear like collapsed umbrellas.

Eleven new steamships are now building in New York.

ATTESTED BEFORE THE MAYOR OF NEW YORK CITY.
Consumption and Affection of the Liver cured of Twenty Years Standing.
City of New York, July 24, 1847.
THIS is to certify that I, Nelson Larabee, of Jersey City, have for a period of twenty years been subject to a dry hacking cough and a pain in the side and chest, attended with night sweats and general weakness of the system, and have been pronounced incurably consumptive. Neither the advice of regular physicians nor the many advertised remedies I have taken have been of any permanent benefit, and I was yielding hopelessly to the progress of my disease, when I was persuaded to try E. W. Vandersmith's Indian Cough Balm and Lung Balm, by the aid of which all my symptoms have been removed and I have been wonderfully restored to the blessings of health and the prospect of a prolonged existence; in gratitude for which, and in the hope of benefiting others, I solemnly testify to the facts in this certificate.
NELSON LARABEE, Jersey City.
Sworn to before me, this 21st day of July, 1847.
WM. V. BRADY,
Mayor of the City of New York.
P. S.—If any person wishes to see me relative to my disease, they can call on board the New Jersey Ferry Boat foot of Courtlandt-st., N. Y.

Remarkable Cure of Mrs. Flemington of Fishkill, New York.
New York, April 1, 1848.
Dr. Vandersmith.—My wife has been afflicted for seven years, with an affection of the lungs, accompanied with a pain in the chest and side, difficulty in breathing, and general debility. I employed the best medical skill, and they finally pronounced her lungs diseased, and consequently despaired of effecting a cure. I was induced, by the representation of a friend, to try Dr. Vandersmith's Indian Cough Balm and Lung Balm. I sent to New York for the medicine. Before she commenced taking the medicine, she was confined to her bed; her cough was incessant. After she had taken the medicine, the third day her cough abated considerably; she expectorated a great quantity of yellow matter; her difficulty in breathing subsided. Our family physician, who formerly attended her, called to see her, and he said she was improving; and advised her to continue the medicine. Although she was much emaciated from the disease, she has been restored to health, and is now able to attend to her domestic duties as she ever was. I can with confidence recommend Dr. Vandersmith's Indian Cough Balm and Lung Balm to Consumptives.

Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

A REMEDY for all diseases of the Hair, and is restorative in all cases where baldness is not beyond the reach of art. Naught with beauty can compare, With soft, glossy locks of hair; If not endowed with such by nature, Use Phalon's Hair Invigorator. The subscriber having devoted a considerable portion of his time for twenty years to the study of the skin and the human hair, also the best means of treating and curing the same, and having, in the course of his experiments made various changes and improvements in the different articles approved as the best for such purposes, has at length, after laborious research and deep investigation, succeeded in bringing to perfection a composition, the virtues of which he challenges the world to excel. The Chemical Hair Invigorator is composed of a number of vegetable ingredients of opposite qualities, and approved by the highest medical standard, the secret of blending and combining, which is known only to the subscriber, who has spared neither pains nor expense in bringing it before the public. The Invigorator is an article in which a cleansing and purifying wash is beautifully blended with a most delicate, silky and glossy moisture of the hair never before attained, yet free from animal grease or essential oils. It cleanses the pores of the skin, causes a healthy action of the blood vessels, nerves, &c., which free the hair, thereby preventing baldness and gray hair, entirely frees the skin from scurf, dandruff and other cutaneous diseases, disposes the hair to curl, and keeps it so—will positively change the hardest hair into the most soft and healthy and glossy state, also imparts to it a darker color, and a free use of it will keep both the skin and hair in a healthy and luxuriant state until the last period of life. Ladies will find the Invigorator a great addition to the toilet, both on account of its delicate and agreeable perfume, and the great facilities it affords in dressing the hair, which when moistened with the Invigorator can be dressed in any required form, so as to preserve its place whether plain or in curls. When used on children's heads it lays the foundation of a good head of hair. Invented and prepared by EDWARD PHALON, professor of Wig Making and Hair Cutting, 61 Broadway, New York. A treatise on the Anatomy and Physiology of the Hair, with directions for preventing baldness, removing dandruff and preserving the natural beauty and softness of the hair. Price 50 cents per bottle—large size, $1. For sale wholesale and retail by GORTON ANDERSON, No. 151 Thames-street, Newport, and by J. Balch & Son, 42 South Main-street, Providence, and by druggists and hair dressers, generally in Boston. nov 16-1y1a

Coggeshall & Bliss' Patent Cooking Range.
THE subscriber has just taken out letters patent for a new and beautiful cooking Range, to which they invite the attention of the public. This Range may be set in the ordinary fire place, and by a simple, though effectual apparatus, the throat of the chimney may in an instant of time, be opened or closed, so that the heat in summer and the fumes from cooking at all times may escape through the chimney. Wood or coal may be used, and the evil of smoking chimneys is completely remedied by its introduction. This Range is so constructed that it takes up but a small space, and yet it contains all the qualities of those which take up double the amount; and it being constructed as it is, the Boilers are brought in close proximity with the fire, and it consequently boils much sooner, and with a smaller amount of fuel, than the old fashioned Ranges, or cook stoves. It contains five boilers, four of which may be converted into two, by taking out a cross piece, and thus will admit of two large boilers at the same time. It also contains and Oven 12 inches wide by 21 deep, which cannot be surpassed for baking. The subscriber has one of these Ranges in operation at his store, where the public are invited to call and examine it, and if they will, they must at once discover its utility. He also keeps constantly on hand all kinds of Parlor, Office, and Cook Stoves, Tin Ware, &c. &c., WM. H. BLISS. Feb 9-1f

Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co.

(Office No 21 Wall-st., N. Y.)

At all times secured by the System of Life Insurance now in successful operation in this company.

1st. Those in good health, of the proper age, and of sound constitution, will be insured at the lowest rate of premiums.

2d. The premium, if over $50, can be paid one-fourth in cash, and three-fourths in a secured note at 12 months, bearing 6 per cent. interest, and subject to assessments if required, or it may be paid weekly, monthly, or quarterly.

3d. Annual division of profits in scrip certificates which bear 6 per cent. interest, and if required a loan of two-thirds on the scrip will be made in cash—or the profits can be added to increase the sum insured.

4th. No persons are liable beyond the amount of their premium.

5th. Married women may insure the lives of their husbands, secure from any demands of their creditors, if the premium does not exceed $300 per annum.

6th. Creditors may insure their debtors; or debtors themselves, for the protection of creditors.

7th. An insurance can be made so that the sum insured will be paid on attaining a specified age, or sooner in the event of death.

8th. All claims on policies will be paid three months after notice and proof of death.

9th. No risk will be taken on any one life exceeding $5000, until the surplus profits amount to $50,000; then the amount of risk on a single life will be gradually extended as the funds of the Company augment.

10th. No Director or Officer can obtain a loan of the Company.

11th. When the net profits of the Company amount to $200,000, the excess will be applied towards the redemption of Scrip, giving priority to that first issued: but the amount of $200,000, in addition to the reinsurance fund, will be kept as a permanent fund, in which the members have a pro rata interest.

12th. The funds of the Company to be invested by the Finance Committee in bonds and first mortgages on unencumbered real estate, the actual value of which is twice the amount loaned—or in stocks of the United States, or of the States of N. York, New Jersey, Massachusetts, and Maine, or loaned to members on their Scrip.

13th. No part of the profits is withheld, or diverted from the assured in any way.

14th. There is no stock or loan, either nominal or real, to pay interest for; the company having ample capital in the premiums received.

15th. It enables a man to provide for a wife and children, in such a way, that although he may lose all, they are safe; and all persons, whether married or unmarried, to provide for old age, sickness, and want, as well as for death.

16th. It does not reckon the assured a year older than he is—but from six months less, to six months more, so as to equalize the same between all parties.

17th. It pays no directors, auditors, or solicitors.

18th. A portion of the directors and the officers are chosen yearly, and the members vote according to interest.

19th. The assured can surrender the policy at any time after a term of years, and receive its equitable value.

20th. Every precaution is taken to prevent a forfeiture of policy.

The Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company, is authorized by its charter to make all and every insurance appertaining to or connected with Life risks, of whatever kind or nature, and will grant annuities and make endowments, as by the Act of Incorporation, passed the 30th January, 1815.

The Directors of this Company, deeply impressed with the very great, useful, and growing importance to the community at large of Life Insurance, would call the attention of the public to the following observations and principles, as intended to explain to them its peculiar advantages, and the particular features of this valuable institution. It is seen above how extensive the privileges are, reaching to every risk appertaining to or connected with life; guarding and supporting infancy to old age, in all grades of professions and trades; orphans, widows and their children, by a small annual investment, on the principle of Mutual Benefit, arising from Mutual Insurance, being a self-protective society. In this there is no Money Stock; the funds or capital arise from premiums paid in when persons make insurance, and these form the means to make payments on policies, grant loans, pay expenses, and yield profits. All persons insured become members, but are not liable beyond the amount of the premiums to be paid by them. The books of the company are open to them, to see that the sums paid, or securities received, are deposited or invested according to the charter, and the net profits, at fixed periods, are divided among them, as hereafter explained. The table of figures, and the rules, are made and calculated with accuracy, after the experience and practice of old English companies, and all persons can see by them how much they have to pay, and the gains they will be likely to receive. This plan of the Savings Bank and Mutual Insurance, affording the security of the one, and gain of the other, and is entirely benevolent in its operations; it also embraces a provision for Married Women to insure the lives of their husbands for any amount, the premium of which shall not exceed $300 per annum, and is secured to them against any demands in law, of creditors.

The greatest portion of society, who by daily exertions of industry earn support, as artisans and mechanics, deriving livelihood from personal labor and skill, seldom resort to Life Insurance, in any numbers, for a future provision for their families, though it is none would be so important as to them, who, by sickness and death, may in a day, leave those nearest and dearest to them in poverty. To men in mercantile pursuits and those in professional business of every rank and class, or those who have uncertain or small incomes, and who are most numerous in wealth in the aggregate, and have it in their power to provide against the vicissitudes they are constantly exposed to, Life Insurance is also of the utmost importance; they, and those in lower circumstances, are often deterred from entering into contracts of insurance, as the advantages appear remote—being contingent on death, or ability to pay the premiums.

To assist all such, this Mutual Benefit society so arranges the payment of the premiums, and of returns, in part of the same, as to enable all persons to become members, and enjoy its advantages while living; thus protecting themselves in life, and providing for their families after their death; in this way a short life may obtain, and leave to their heirs, the benefit of a long one.

This Company will grant insurance on lives, on the Mutual principle, to applicants upon their own lives, or the lives of others, for the whole duration of life, or for a limited period, at the rates specified in the tables, for sound and healthy persons—Also, any person in sound health may insure $5000 for life upon his own or his wife's life, or the wife upon the life of her husband, or the age of thirty years, (and in like proportion for other ages,) by paying 25 cents weekly, or on $1000 by paying 50 cents weekly; the policy always remaining with the Company, with the premiums paid endorsed thereon; and in case of death they will be entitled to the amount thus insured, deducting therefrom the balance remaining of weekly payments, with interest, for the current year. No risk will be taken on a single life for more than $5,000, until the profits of the Company amount to $50,000, after which, according to the profits, the amount will be gradually extended to a sum not exceeding $15,000.

The better to enable all persons to insure, the Company will annually issue Scrip certificates, of estimated profits, bearing interest at 6 per cent.—Whenever the accumulation of net profits of the Company shall exceed the sum of $200,000, the excess may be applied from year to year, or semi-annually thereafter, towards the redemption of each year's certificates of scrip, in whole or in part, as may be determined on by the board of directors, priority to be given to the scrip first issued. The insured may borrow from the Company on his scrip, two thirds of the amount of the same at any time, which will enable him to use a portion of his profits for the payment of his annual premium, even before the redemption of the scrip. All classes of persons will thus be admitted and enabled to meet the premiums, and have the gain of the Savings Bank, with the profit on a large business, by an actual small investment or outlay of money.

All claims for insurance will be paid three months after satisfactory evidence of the death of the persons deceased is exhibited and approved.

Should it any time be desirable for a person to sell his policy, where it is for life, the Company will purchase the same at an equitable rate.

Parties insured at the table rates of premiums, are not to pass south of the Southern line of Virginia and Kentucky, or east of the Mississippi River, between the first day of June and first day of November; but can visit any part of the United States or Northern British Provinces, between the first of November and first of June. By the payment of an extra premium, insurances can be effected by persons who desire to reside South during the interdicted time.

All persons whose lives are insured by this Company, are permitted to travel on any of the regular mail routes, (within the limits prescribed in the policy) or on any of the Northern or Upper Lakes, by steamboat or other common mode of conveyance.

Extra hazardous risks will be taken on persons going out, or residing out of the limits of the policy, and embracing all parts of the world; also on all persons going to sea, and such other risks as may be specially agreed for, being more hazardous, to be expressed in their policies. The extra premiums to be computed upon equitable principles.

Insurances will be made on the lives of Military and Naval Officers, off or on duty, in time of peace, the premium to be settled according to circumstances of climate, locality, &c., as they may be more or less hazardous.

What can better illustrate the wise disposition of the Supreme Being, in the varying term of human life, than the certainty of the general laws that regulate its duration, and the reflections that arise from the contemplation of these laws operating constantly upon the human race? Life insurance then rests upon the simple fact, that every individual of the human race has, at the period of his birth, a certain term of existence, which he will live through, or what is called the mean duration, or expectation of life at birth.

It is a question how such term of existence, or mean duration, is found. This is done simply by taking the number of years that have been lived through by a party from birth to death, and also taking all ages from 1 to 100 years old—the number of all ages from 1 to 100 years old—the number of years lived by each person is added into one sum and being divided by the number of persons, the mean duration of the life of man is ascertained. If it were found on trial, that on taking the result of the lives of 1,000 or 10,000 individuals, and deducting the mean duration; and then going through the same process with like numbers, and the mean duration of the latter differed widely from the former, it would be to no purpose to follow out experiments; but this is not the fact, and in nothing is the uniformity of the general laws of nature more powerfully exemplified, than in regulating the period of human existence. The result of experience is constant, that two bodies of individuals, each of 1000, living in the same country, and of similar occupations, have each a period of mean duration, which differs only a trifle from that of the other body. Apply this to insurance on life in the same body of persons; they pay a small sum or premium, annually, and the office, or Company, agrees to pay them annually a profit, and a certain sum at the death of each; as, by example, the average expectancy of life of 25 years, experience, to be of a person in health of 25 years, 30 years more; and of 40 years 23 years longer; then by the tables of rates, the first has to pay $20.40-100 a year during his life, to secure, $1000 to be paid to his wife or children after his death; the second pays $32, to insure the same; then taking the gain of interest, and other items, that make up the profits on Mutual Insurance, it is almost certain the amount of $1000 insured will be much increased, when in the end it is to be paid to his heirs, all which is firmly established by the facts of experience. Life Insurance, therefore, on Mutual Insurance, is not a fictitious scheme to draw people into, for money-making purposes. Such an idea, if it exists, is most incorrect, and is dissolved at once by the very fact, that this is a Mutual Benefit Company, and consequently any person taking out a policy, becomes a member by a small annual payment, and has a joint interest in its concerns, and a voice in its management. Founded on scientific principles, exemplified by experience, its real service then to all classes of persons, who are dependent on certain incomes, or salaries, professions, mechanical skill, or daily labor cannot be denied; and it has proved essentially beneficial to the families of such, in event of death, and is therefore an institution ranking among the noblest works of benevolence in the world.

Such being the equitable and beneficial principles on which Mutual Life Insurance is established, it presents a most suitable and favorable means of providing for the extended and dependent lives of children; for what is the situation of a man, who, for the gratification of his affection, surrounds himself with a wife and children, and lives in the enjoyment of those valued blessings, and knowing that in an instant, the cessation of his life may throw them into a state of destitution! The neglect, then, of such a cheap and certain provision, is gross improvidence; for it is not mere a man's absolute duty, to provide while he lives the daily bread for his family, than it is against leaving them to suffer penurious misery in the event of his death. It is then a religious as well as moral duty, to be easily accomplished by the weekly, monthly, or yearly earnings—and this Life Insurance of Mutual Insurance, is the protection against such dreadful evils.

The observations and explanations above made on the principles of Life Insurance generally, and particularly the great and very superior advantages exhibited to the public by insuring in this Mutual Benefit Company; the credit which policies will give to men in trade, the gain it may be to all classes in their business vocations, and the duty of all to provide for their families, should induce every person to give this subject a careful consideration, remembering the injunction of Scripture, that "if any provide not for his own, and especially for them of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel."

Hyer's Pills.
The American Improved Hygienic Vegetable Medicine.

SAFE, CHEAP AND EFFECTIVE.

This medicine makes no pretensions to miraculous powers, the raising of the dead, or to immense and astounding sales daily and hourly, after the most approved method of the times; but bases all its claims upon plain common sense principles, as a simple aid to nature in restoring the human system to its proper tone and action, when by carelessness or unavoidable circumstances it has become deranged or debilitated, and asks simply a faithful trial as a test of its curative properties. During the last twenty years it has worked its way into extensive use, truly upon its own merits, by commendation from individual to individual, not having been advertised for more than twelve years till within the past few months—save occasionally in a journal of which the present proprietor is Editor. The increasing demand, however, has measurably compelled greater attention to its business, and agencies are now being established throughout the country.

A faithful trial of a half dollar or dollar package is almost certain to secure use in every family where it is introduced, where medicine is needed. The undersigned has used it in his own family for more than fifteen years—has knowledge of its approved use in many others, (for periods varying from months to fifteen or sixteen years,) as their only medicine, and knows it to be valuable in most of the complaints incident to the human system. But a long or extravagant commendation is not designed or intended here. Ten thousand more assertions in its favor will not make it valuable, or satisfy reasonable persons without a trial; for the proof, after all, must lie in the use of it. Try it, then. Read, try, and then judge.

Brownell's Cooking Range.

THE subscriber has just completed the invention of a new Cooking Range, to which he invites the attention of the public. This Range possesses qualities for expeditious boiling and cooking that other Ranges do not, and it occupies but a small space of room.

Brownell's Cooking Range has six eight inch boilers, any two, or four of which, can be thrown into one, so as to admit of a large boiler; and it is provided with a set of rings so that any size furniture can be used on it. Its Oven is large, convenient of access, and having an upward draft, it bakes evenly with a small quantity of fuel.

One of these Ranges is in successful operation at the store of the subscriber, subject to the examination of the public, who are invited to call and take a look at it.
